No. 1—Ml. 86-17-63, dated 1st July 1918.

Whereas by proclamation published on the 2nd August 1917, at pages 1394-95 in English and at pages 877-8 in Kannada of the Mysore Gazette, Part II, for 1917, and posted up in conspicuous places in the town of Yelahanka, Bangalore Taluk, it was duly announced under Section 8 of the Municipal Regulation, VII of 1906, that it was proposed under Section 7 of the said Regulation to constitute the town of Yelahanka the local area comprised within the limits specified in that proclamation, into a permanent Municipality and whereas no objections were made to the said proposals, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 4 (1) of the said Regulation, to constitute the said town of Yelahanka into a permanent Municipality and to declare that the boundary of the said Municipality, shall on and from the 1st July 1918, be shown as hereunder

I. The boundary line of the town of Yelahanka begins at the south-west corner of Survey No. 216 of Yelahanka and runs south-eastwards along the Chikballapur Light Railway line boundary and turns south-west towards the Railway Station, which is in Survey No. 190 and then turns south-east and east a little towards the village and then turns south, south-eastwards along the Bangalore-Guntakal Railway line boundary and the western boundary line of Survey No. 122, as far as the north-east corner of Survey No. 121. Then it turns south-west along the northern boundary of Survey No. 121 and then turns south, south-eastwards and runs along the western boundary of the said Survey Nos. 121, 120 and 119, but beyond the limits of the Railway line. After crossing a cross road it continues to run south, south-eastwards in the same way along the western boundary of Survey No. 118 and the south-western boundary of Survey No. 117, crosses the Bangalore-Devanhalli road, east of the Railway gate and joins the extreme western boundary mark of Survey No. 137. (This line constitutes the main boundary of the western and south-west part of the proposed Municipality of Yelahanka).

II. From the extreme western boundary mark of Survey No. 137, the line runs north-east along the eastern extremity of Bangalore-Devanhalli road; the north-west and western boundaries of Survey Nos. 137, 109 and 110, being its eastern boundaries. Near north-west corner of Survey No. 110, it crosses a cart-track leading to Sivanhalli. From the western bulging boundary mark of Survey No. 99, the line runs as usual north-east along the western boundaries of Survey Nos. 99, 98 and 83 and including the 'chattram' in Survey No. 85, it runs along the west and north-western boundaries of Survey Nos. 76, 75, 68 and 67 and reaches the north-west corner of Survey No. 67. This line constitutes the east and south-east boundary of the proposed Municipality.

III. From the north-west corner of Survey No. 67, the line crosses the Bangalore-Devanhalli road westwards (i. e. towards the town) and meets the south-east boundary mark of Survey No. 55 and runs westwards along the northern extremity of the branch road leading from the Bangalore-Devanhalli road to the travellers' bungalow and along the southern boundaries of Survey Nos. 55 and 54 and turns north-west along the western boundary of Survey No. 54 as far as the south-east boundary mark of Survey No. 53, whence it turns westwards along the southern boundary of Survey No. 53 and turns northward again along the western boundary of Survey No. 53. Crossing a cart-track leading from the town towards the Bangalore-Devanhalli road, the line touches the south-west corner of Survey No. 52 and runs eastwards along the southern boundary of Survey No. 50 and runs north-west, north and north-east again along the south-west bulging boundary of Survey No. 50, then turns a little north-east, north and north-west along a short curve in the lower half of the western boundary of Survey No. 50 and then turns north-west up to the southern boundary mark of the upper part of Survey No. 50 and then turns westwards along the southern boundary line of the upper part of Survey No. 50 and then turns north-west again along the western boundary of the upper part of the said Survey No. 50 and reaches the north-west boundary mark of the Survey No. 50; it then runs eastwards along the northern boundary of Survey No. 50, up to the north-east boundary mark of the said Survey No. 50.
